Dear Professor Eglen,

Your request was received on 21 September 2021 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked for:

Download statistics for ScienceDirect journals from University of Cambridge for the calendar years 2019 and 2020.

The relevant file for 2019 is called:

Elsevier_COUNTER_TR_J4_YoPexcludingGOA_2019.xlsx

I have the file currently for my own private use, but I believe it should be publicly available as legitimate information for use by other researchers in the UK regarding our ongoing negotiations with the publisher Elsevier.

The requested information is attached. However, please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright. This may include copyright and/or database rights in the information that are owned by Elsevier. While we consider that the information may be disclosed to you, we cannot advise on whether any public dissemination by you of this information might breach Elsevier's rights.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The
